WM. FOX AT ACA

WM. FOX ANNIVERSARY AT ACADEMY OF MUSIC.

Jane Cowl in "Common Clay" will e the attraction at the Standard Reginning to-morrow afternoon, William Fox will celebrate an anniversary, marking the end of his highversary, marking the end of ms high-ly successful year as a producer of motion picture plays at the Academy of, Music. For the first half of the week Theda Bara will be seen in a new film drama entitled "Her Double Life." Grace Hoffman, operatic soprano, has selected the mad scene from "Lucia" as her ogering. Car-men Gont, violinist, will render solos, and Wallace McDonald will offer "At Dawning," a number which he did "Justice," with John Barrymore and O. P. Heggie in their original ales, will be seen at the Bronx Opera Dawning," a number which he did much to popularize. On Thursday there will be a complete new pro-gramme, with W. S. Hart in "The Dawn Maker" as the chief attraction. The Academy has been redecorated and an elaborate new stage setting now adds to its beauty.

"INTOLERANCE" WINS BIG SUCCESS AT LIBERTY.

"Intolerance" completes its first onth at the Liberty Theatre. MA Griffith's spectacular treatment of the main theme, in which he carries four currents of history down to a climax currents of history down to a climax of dramatic intensity interwoved with scenes of beauty and historical accuracy, has made a lasting impression. In the force and splendor of these manifold scenes "Intolerance" is the most astonishing achievement ever seen in an American theatre. The reproduction of ancient lisbylon along with the reverential treatment of the Judean scenes at the companyment of the Christian era and mencement of the Christian era and the medieval views of France under Charles IX, links these earlier periods in an elaborate pictorial way with the realism and human appeal of the story of modern times. The treatment is different from anything ever undertaken for the stage. Unlike other things which were iconoclastic in their trend and departed from the traditions of the theatre, "Intoler-ture, "The Common Law." ance" is a great popular success.

"A CORNER IN COLLEENS" TO BE SEEN AT RIALTO.

In "A Corner in Colleens," the feature picture that comes to the Rialto Theatre, Bossie Barriscale will be seen as "Shammie," short for Shamrock, the tomboy in a family of four pretty girls occupying a cottage with their foster mother near Dublin. Her love of excitement leads to her arrest as a rebel during the Irish up-rising, but she is saved from the constabulary by the young American landlord of the cottage where she
